

Heads South

New on the scene Jazz Salsa group Heads South are delighting their fast growing audiences. Their music combines great rhythm and great melody in a superb repertoire of original compositions and arrangements of well loved tunes. This is premium quality Latin Jazz that appeals both to the keen concert hall listener and the dancefloor mover. The Band's 5 piece line-up is led by pianist composer John Harriman and features the outstanding Jazz Trumpeter Steve Waterman, Cuban Percussionist Chino Martell Morgan, the versatile Buster Birch on drums and New Zealander Tim Robertson on bass guitar. This is a new line-up of musicians drawn to the sounds of diverse cultures and "Las Tierras Latinas". Their music is fresh, encompassing memorable new tunes such as El Cardenal, Juntito and Sweet Swan to new arrangements of classics such as Besame Mucho and Mack The Knife. Think Buena Vista Social Club, add the excitement of Jazz, great new melody, the warmth of a Latin evening, grooving away into the night..
